

Christine and Mary Pooler
November 28 to December 4, 2009

After meeting Christine and Mary at the airport we had dinner at de Loose Mongoose restaurant on Beef Island

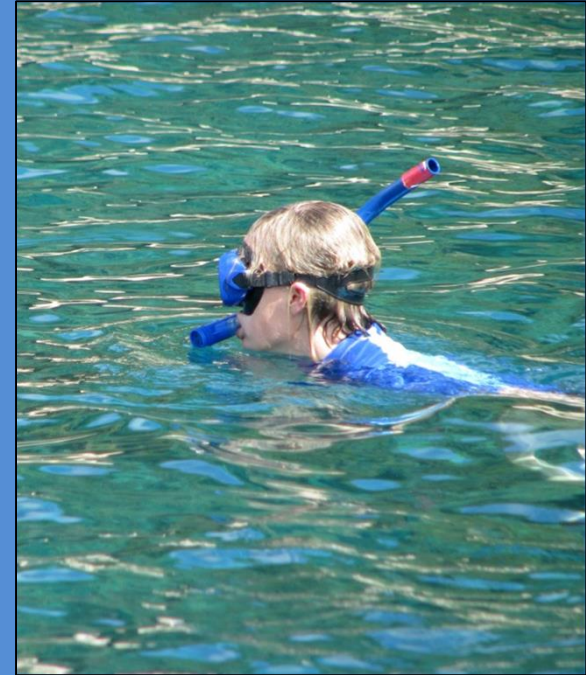

Mary enjoys her first sail

Susan gives Christine a lesson on snorkeling.
She learned very fast

A boat sails into the harbor as the sun sets

Susan gives Randy a much needed haircut

Christine trims the sail while Mary keeps a sharp eye on the proceedings

We pulled into Village Cay Marina in Road Town, Tortola for provisioning and to do a tour of the town

Susan and Mary take in the sights of Road Town

Susan drives as we leave Road Town harbor passing the cruise ship dock

Mary is not missing the Minnesota winter

A friendly turtle pops up for a visit

Sailing into Gorda Sound

Scenes from Biars Creek in Gorda Sound

The Merkel family arrive on Mirasol to join us for dinner

We visited
Saba Rock Resort where Mary and Christine made a new friend

Leverick Bay Resort

The Leverick Bay Resort has a buffet every Friday evening with a show presented by a Jumbie troupe

We had a prime balcony table for the Jumbie show

The Jumbies getting ready for the show. I learned later that I was not suppose to take pictures of their preparation

The shoes are attached to the stilts

Our waitress for the evening

He looked to be about eight years old

Christine takes a turn on the dance floor

A wonderful way to end our week together
